DESCRIPTION

Spacious entry level 1 bedroom, with low maintenance, facing the leafy tree tops on 4th Street, with views over the Brownstones across the street. There is great light throughout the day which creates a warm living environment. As you enter your eyes are drawn to the light and foliage from the street facing exposure. The living room is well proportioned for a comfortable entertaining area as well as a small dining area. At the front of the living room, you have a windowed galley kitchen with dishwasher. The master bedroom is over sized and can easily accommodate multiple set ups. The windowed bathroom is off the master bedroom. Pre War details are present with banded hardwood floors, trim and molding. 333 4th Street is an elevator building in Park Slope with super, bike room, laundry and storage. Pets ok.
